

SOIL ON EARTH | ADDITIONAL VIDEO RESOURCES

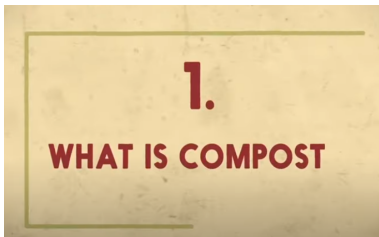

Everything You Need to Know About Compost

Duration: 2:20

Video Description: Explore the science of healthy compost! in this video, CiS educators teach viewers about the science of compost. They also demonstrate how to DIY a compost bin at home.

Video Reflection Questions:

- What are the benefits of rotating your compost bin?
- If you have a small home compost bin, why can you only compost specific items?

Composting For Kids

Duration: 2:13

Video Description: In this short video explains what compost is and why composting is good for our planet. It also reflects on how food waste contributes to climate change, and details why composting is great for the environment.

Video Reflection Questions:

- How does food waste thrown into landfills affect water sources?
- What kinds of organisms help break down food scraps into compost?

Make the Most of Compost | SciShow Kids

Duration: 5:19

Learn all about how to recycle food scraps into compost. This video dives deeper into the science of composting. Great for inspiring students to start composting at home or at school!

Video Reflection Questions:

- What role do decomposers play in compost?
- What goes into the “recipe” for compost?

