

FRUITS & FLOWERS | VOCABULARY

- anther* male part of a flower where pollen is collected by bees
- colony* a group of bees living together
- nectar* the food bees eat that flowers produce
- organic* plants not treated with pesticides
- pesticides* a substance used to kill insects and pests on crops; while not intended to kill bees, it is harmful to them
- pollination* the transfer of pollen from one flower to another that allows it to grow a seed
- seed* the product of pollination. a seed will grow into a new plant
- stigma* female part of a flower where pollen is dropped off by bees
- thorax* fuzzy middle part of a bee
- abdomen* end section of a bee, attached to the stinger

